2. [ ] Representative John O. Marsh contacted us to advise of a program which will be conducted at the Marriott Motel tomorrow which will include demonstrations by a 20-member team from the Special Forces at Ft. Bragg, N.C. This is a team which has recently returned from Viet Nam. Marsh said the team would be there in connection with Marsh's proposal for Operation Friendship (a humanitarian effort with respect to Viet Nam). It appears that Cyrus Vance, Deputy Secretary of Defense, has given his blessing to this project in view of the participation of the Special Forces team and a talk to be given by Joseph Calafano. Marsh merely wished to bring this to our attention in the event we would like to have someone present. This has been called to the attention of [ ]
